The Fifteen Promises of Mary to Christians Who Recite the Rosary

1. Whoever shall faithfully serve me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall receive signal graces.
2. I promise my special protection and the greatest graces to all those who shall recite the Rosary.
3. The Rosary shall be a powerful armor against hell, it will destroy vice, decrease sin, and defeat heresies.
4. It will cause virtue and good works to flourish; it will obtain for souls the abundant mercy of God; it will withdraw the hearts of men from the love of the world and its vanities, and will lift them to the desire of eternal things. Oh, that souls would sanctify themselves by this means.
5. The soul which recommends itself to me by the recitation of the Rosary, shall not perish.
6. Whoever shall recite the Rosary devoutly, applying himself to the consideration of its sacred mysteries shall never be conquered by misfortune. God will not chastise him in His justice, he shall not perish by an unprovided death; if he be just he shall remain in the grace of God, and become worthy of eternal life.
7. Whoever shall have a true devotion for the Rosary shall not die without the sacraments of the Church.
8. Those who are faithful to recite the Rosary shall have during their life and at their death the light of God and the plenitude of His graces; at the moment of death they shall participate in the merits of the saints in paradise.
9. I shall deliver from Purgatory those who have been devoted to the Rosary.
10. The faithful children of the Rosary shall merit a high degree of glory in heaven.
11. You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary.
12. All those who propagate the Holy Rosary shall be aided by me in their necessities.
13. I have obtained from my Divine Son that all the advocates of the Rosary shall have for intercessors the entire celestial court during their life and at the hour of death.
14. All who recite the Rosary are my sons, and brothers of my only Son Jesus Christ.
15. Devotion of my Rosary is a great sign of predestination.

COMMUNITY ROSARY FOR THE U.S.A.
October 16, 2021

You will have two opportunities to pray a community Rosary for the USA on Saturday, October 16.

At 12:00pm we will pray the program from America Needs Fatima. This should be outside in front of the church. We have had "by the grace of God happenings when doing this outside." Streaks of light have appeared in our group picture in front of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Another time a storm was fast approaching, we scurried to the overhang in front of the church entrance. We didn't want to go inside. Our reward was as the storm headed directly toward us, it made an abrupt left turn as it reached the Monument of the Unborn. It did this twice as we prayed and watched. All I could do was watch and pray in amazement, I couldn't even say look what the Lord is doing. Who knows what God may do next. Amazing! All Glory to God!

Then at 3:00pm, we will first pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet followed by the Rosary with the intentions from America Needs Fatima.

Please consider attending one or both. The Blessed Virgin Mary is asking for prayer in these times, especially the Rosary. Join us. Invite a family member or a friend. As an old game show host used to say, "Call a friend." Ask them to come. Blessings upon all of you. Blessings upon those who will pray a Rosary at home.

Disposing of Old, Worn-out Sacramentals & Consecrated Material

When a material sacramental becomes so worn that it can no longer be used as a sacramental, a Catholic won't casually toss it into the trash. To prevent desecration, the sacramental should be returned to the earthly elements. Holy water, for example, should be poured into a hole dug in the earth, in a spot no one would walk over. Combustible sacramentals, such as scapulars and holy books, should be burned and then buried. Larger sacramentals that don't burn should be altered so that their form no longer appears to be a sacramental (ex., a statue should be broken up into small pieces) and then buried. Objects made of metals can be melted down and used for another purpose.

Items lose their blessing or consecration if they are desecrated, are substantially broken such that they can no longer be used for their sacred purpose, or if they are publicly sold (if an item is sold by one individual to another for only the price of the material itself -- i.e., if no profit is made, the blessing remains. E.g., if you were to give someone, say, a blessed rosary or sell it to him at cost, he would not have to have it re-blessed; if you sell a blessed rosary to someone for profit, he would need to take it to a priest.)

Note that on 23 June -- the Eve of the Feast of St. John the Baptist -- it is custom to build large bonfires in which no longer useful material sacramentals are burned. Read more about this tradition in the The Catholic Year IV: Calendar-related Customs area of this site.

The Blessed Sacrament

In the sacristy (also called "vestry") of a church -- the room where vestments, vessels and oils are stored -- there is a special sink called a "sacrarium" (also "piscina") which is used for cleaning sacred vessels. This basin's drainage pipe doesn't lead to the sewer as do those of most sinks; instead, it goes directly to the earth so that liquid sacramentals, such as holy water and oils, or even the tiniest morsels of the Blessed Sacrament or drops of the Precious Blood which might be found on Patens or in Chalices, will be disposed of correctly and with reverence. If the accidents of a consecrated Host or chalice of the Precious Blood were to become contaminated in some way such that it could not be consumed, they are disposed of in the sacrarium.

Register for Parish Sessions!

Please join others from your parish for a Parish Consultation Session to learn more about future plans for your parish and for the Diocese of Columbus. Questions? Reach out to us: hello@columbuscatholic.org

About the Sessions

As part of the ongoing strategic process for Real Presence, Real Future, the diocese will be hosting Consultation Sessions for each parish throughout the fall. Parishioner participation in these sessions is critical to helping shape the future of the Diocese of Columbus.

Virtual Sessions

Two sessions will be held in a virtual format via Zoom for each parish in the diocese. Both sessions will present the same information, just offered at different days/times to allow for the largest parishioner participation.

What You'll Learn

Facilitators will guide parishioners through important statistical and sacramental information relevant to the diocese as a whole, to parishes in surrounding areas, as well as individual parish information.

Your Input

The feedback provided during these sessions will be used to draft new models for review by parishioners in early 2022.

Why should I attend?

The Parish Consultation Sessions are a vital part of the planning process that encourages parishioners to offer insights and perspectives on the future planning of their parish.

The consultation process will continue throughout 2022 until final models are approved. No decisions have been made regarding any parish, and none will be made until feedback is gathered directly from parishioners through the consultation process.

Every parishioner in the diocese is encouraged to attend!

<https://realpresencerealfuture.org/parish-sessions-faqs/>

PARISH LEADERS WILL BE ATTENDING A PRELIMINARY SESSION ON OCTOBER 19, 2021, TO LEARN WHAT WILL EXPLAINED IN THE PARISH SESSIONS.

Mark your calendar: The COOL Parish Consultation Sessions will be held on Saturday, November 13th at 9:00am or Saturday, November 20th at 9:00am.

Call for Conversion Prayer:

I plead the Precious Blood of Jesus over the entire United States of America, every soul living here. Over our Holy Mother Church, from the pope down to the lowliest religious, including our seminarians and those entering religious life. For all churches, monasteries and all religious gatherings. In Jesus name I pray:

For God's truth to prevail;

Flaws mended;

Corruption exposed;

Sinners to convert, repent and atone for their sins;

Thy will be done and His justice served.

I pray this through the Precious Blood of Jesus, He who lives and reigns now and forever.

Amen

St. Gerard Majella

Feast Day: October 16
Patron of Expectant Mothers
Died: 1755

Born in Muro, Italy about fifty miles south of Naples, in April, 1726; died 16 October, 1755; beatified by Leo XIII, 29 January, 1893, and canonized by Pius X, 11 December, 1904.

His only ambition was to be like Jesus Christ in his sufferings and humiliations. His father, Dominic Majella, died while Gerard was a child. His pious mother, owing to poverty, was obliged to apprentice him to a tailor. His master loved him, but the foreman treated him cruelly. His reverence for the priesthood and his love of suffering led him to take service in the house of a prelate, who was very hard to please. On the latter's death Gerard returned to his trade, working first as a journeyman and then on his own account. His earnings he divided between his mother and the poor, and in offerings for the souls in purgatory.

After futile attempts first to become a Franciscan and then a hermit, he entered the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer in 1749. Two years later he made his profession, and to the usual vows he added one by which he bound himself to do always that which seemed to him more perfect. He served as sacristan, gardener, porter, infirmarian (caring for the sick of the order), and tailor. However, because of his great piety, extraordinary wisdom, and his gift of reading consciences, he was permitted to counsel communities of religious women. St. Alphonsus considered him a miracle of obedience. He not only obeyed the orders of superiors when present, but also when absent knew and obeyed their desires.

Although weak in body, he did the work of three, and his great charity earned for him the title of Father of the Poor. He was a model of every virtue, and so drawn to Our Lord in the Tabernacle that he had to do violence to himself to keep away. An angel in purity, he was accused of a shameful crime; but he bore the calumny with such patience that St. Alphonsus said: "Brother Gerard is a saint". He was favored with infused knowledge of the highest order, ecstasies, prophecy, discernment of spirits, and penetration of hearts, bilocation, and with what seemed an unlimited power over nature, sickness, and the devils.

When he accompanied the Fathers on missions, or was sent out on business, he converted more souls than many missionaries. He predicted the day and hour of his death. A wonderworker during his life, he has continued to be the same since his death.

Prayer: O Great Saint Gerard, beloved servant of Jesus Christ, perfect imitator of your meek and humble Savior, and devoted Child of the Mother of God: enkindle within my heart one spark of that heavenly fire of charity which glowed in your heart and made you an angel of love. O glorious Saint Gerard, because when falsely accused of crime, you did bear, like your Divine Master, without murmur or complaint, the calumnies of wicked men, you have been raised up by God as the patron and protector of expectant mothers. Preserve me from danger and from the excessive pains accompanying childbirth, and shield the child which I now carry, that it may see the light of day and receive the lustral waters of Baptism through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Four “C’s”

Our Catholic Faith and values are under attack. If you read the prophets it’s like looking in the mirror. A feeling of reliving history. All the warnings then become very real today. If you have watched T.V., listened to the news, watched what is going on in our government, our nation, our schools and our world, the evil one has been very busy. The strategy has been subtle, behind the scenes, absolutely amazing and practiced on multiple fronts.

A very simple, deadly plan that has been successful throughout history that comprises four “C’s”...

The first is COMPROMISE

- Allowing our beliefs, our morals, our Catholic Faith to be watered down
- Or thrown out as archaic
- All in the name of “peace”
- Of getting along
- “Live and let live”
- “As long as it doesn’t effect me”
- More compromise

Next comes CONFUSION

- “Where do I stand?”
- “What do I believe?”
- “Has the world changed and I’m out of touch?”
- “Did God make a mistake?”
- More confusion

Next comes CORRUPTION

- We don’t need God
- Breakdown of the family
- The government
- The nation
- And a return to a barbaric world
- Life is unimportant
- Values are trampled

The Final “C” is COLLAPSE

The good news is that Jesus gave us HOPE -

“Upon this rock I will build My Church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it”

Please stand up, put on the Armor of Christ (be in the state of grace) and fight the good fight. Help our Church grow in strength, wisdom and holiness. Pray that God will give us all His grace and mercy. Join us in spreading our Catholic Faith!

Men of the Medal Remember 9/11- 20 Years Later

The Men's Prayer Group met on Saturday morning on 9/11 to discuss their memories and thoughts about the events of 9/11/2001. We viewed three music videos and shared our thoughts and feelings about where we were at the time and our reflections looking back and ahead. We say never forget... but have you? Remember the sacrifice of the first responders who ran TOWARDS the Twin Towers; remember the brave men on flight 93. Remember the pride and unity we had on 9/12. The churches were full; strangers held hands and prayed with each other. There were no Democrats or Republicans; Black or White, Asian or Indian, immigrant or natural born. We were all Americans! As much as we should NEVER FORGET 9/11 - let us ALWAYS REMEMBER 9/12.
