ACT OF CONSECRATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

O Immaculate Heart of Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth, and tender Mother of men, in accordance with Thy ardent wish made known at Fatima, I consecrate to Thy Immaculate Heart myself, my brethren, my country and the whole human race.

Reign over us, Most Holy Mother of God, and teach us how to make the Heart of Thy Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ reign and triumph in us even as It has reigned and triumphed in Thee.

Reign over us, Most Blessed Virgin, that we may be Thine in prosperity and in adversity, in joy and in sorrow, in health and in sickness, in life and in death.

O most compassionate Heart of Mary, Queen of Heaven, watch over our minds and hearts and preserve them from the impurity which Thou didst lament so sorrowfully at Fatima. Assist us in imitating You in all things, especially purity.

Help us to call down upon our country and upon the whole world the peace of God in justice and charity.

Therefore, Most Gracious Virgin and Mother, I hereby promise to imitate Thy virtues by the practice of a true Christian life without regard to human respect.

I resolve to receive Holy Communion regularly and to offer to Thee five decades of the Rosary each day, together with my sacrifices, in the spirit of reparation and penance.

Amen.

Pentecost Sunday -

You may not have noticed the flowers on the pedestal with Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. From where I was sitting I clearly saw the shape of a heart outlined in white carnations! Not intentionally designed by the flower arranger!

What a lovely blessing for our children receiving their Sacraments!

Mary's Prayer Corner

I unite all my prayers with all those praying for conversion of sinners and salvation of souls to increase the number of the remnant of souls that ascend this stairway to Heaven.

In Jesus Name I pray.

God bless you all.

Mary Bishel

The Friend of Medjugorje who also brought us The Patriotic Rosary, is asking for our prayers again this year in The Seven Novenas beginning on June 25, 2022, to pray for the conversion of our country, ending in five days of prayer from December 8 - 12, 2022.

These Novenas are said monthly. The prayers are dated for each day so it is easy to follow. Our Lady is calling us to prayer for the conversion of our loved ones! Please join the effort!

The books are FREE and are located in both lobbies. I know it's already July but I received the book too late to get this notice into the June Newsletter. The prayers are short so it is easy to catch up.

Power & Promise Program - May 2022

Miraculous Medal recently hosted THE PROMISE of the Father AND THE POWER of the Holy Spirit Program on the Sundays in May after the 10:00<sup>AM</sup> Mass. There were about 50 in attendance.

Speakers included Jackie Temple, former Director of the CCR, Deacon Reis, from St Catherine; Patrick Shroyer, Chairman of the CCR Pastoral Board; Lisa Bowman, Pastoral Board Member and Bill Durant, longtime leader for the People of God's Love Covenant Community. Our host was Joe Cardamone.

Discussion leaders included, Hope Cardamone, Fritz and Juliette Mirville, David & Julie Diehl and Cheryl Shroyer. The presentations covered God's love, Jesus' sacrifice for salvation and receiving the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Texts used are found in 1 Corinthians 12, Scripture, the Catechism and affirmations from the popes. Participants were encouraged to be open to the release of the Holy Spirit in their lives and were prayed over.

We also had testimonies from Brigitte Bowman from Damascus, Gabriel Shroyer from St Paul's Outreach and Zander Holloway from Damascus and St Paul Outreach. With youth that are so on fire, the Church is in good hands. Talks are available on the COOL Facebook page for your review; each week has a handout for daily Scripture, reflection and prayer. Copies are available in the parish office.

The event was sponsored by the CCR, established by Bishop Hermann in 1979 to bring the fire of the Holy Spirit to the Catholic Church. For more information go to ccrcolumbus.org.

Lourdes Virtual Pilgrimage

On Thursday, June 2nd, Barb and I were blessed to attend the "Lourdes Virtual Pilgrimage", Confession, and the Candlelight Procession and Rosary at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Ada Ohio. Our Lady of Lourdes and St. Bernadette in Lancaster were the only two churches in Central Ohio to host the Lourdes exhibit and St. Bernadette relic exposition, and two of only 63 parishes in the entire United States to host the events offered. Many states including Indiana and Michigan were unable to host the exhibits and relics.

COOL'S own Father Ed Shikina is pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes, and of Immaculate Conception Parish in Kenton. Barb and I got to meet and treat him to dinner between the morning Mass and the evening activities. It was very special to see Fr. Shikina (email is "eshikina@columbuscatholic.org") He is doing great and is very happy, and he sent greetings to all the members of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal. While talking he did mention the need for prayers for his family and especially his father. Please keep Fr. Ed and his family in your prayers. Thank you.

Our Lady of Lourdes, Pray for us.
St. Bernadette, Pray for us.

HELP STILL WANTED!

Help! Help! Help! Help! Please Help!

I am stepping down from the ministry of holiday decorating.

Please consider this ministry as a person, group or a family. It is rewarding; you get to meet and work with so many of the parishioners.

I may have given out an incorrect phone number last month. So if you tried to call me I apologize for the inconvenience. My correct number is (614) 694-0258.

At Christmas the Knights usually set up the trees and manger. The three large trees are new and a joy for anyone who likes tweaking the tree branches to make them look perfect.

I know you will receive an abundance of blessings from the heavens. Plus the joy of the parish. Please consider this awesome ministry.

Thank you, Mary Bishel

What Children Really Need

June 3, 2022

I just watched a news person interview a school principal and ask, "What are we missing? What do children need?" He went on and on about mental illness, the juvenile justice system, gun control, education reform, blah, blah, blah.

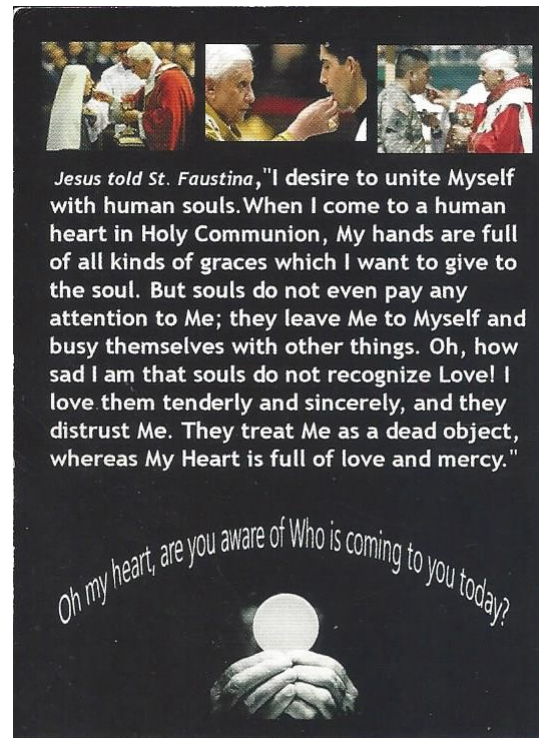

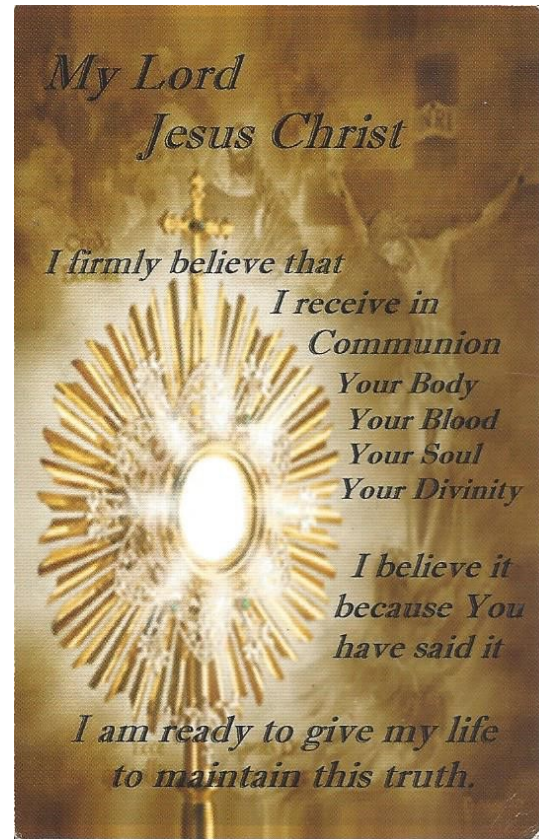

Folks, none of that mumbo jumbo makes a lick of sense. Here is what children need:

1. Children need a mother and a father who love each other and work together as a team.
2. Children need a bicycle, neighbors, and cousins.
3. Children need a grandma to bake with and a grandpa to take 'em fishing.
4. Children need a church, a Sunday School Class, and a truth telling preacher.
5. Children need a dinner time with home cooked food, prayer, and conversation.
6. Children need Sunday afternoon football and fried chicken.
7. Children need books on tape and coloring pages.
8. Children need summers at the beach and Bazooka bubble gum.
9. Children need a trip to Arlington and Fourth of July fireworks.
10. Children need fire pits, s'mores, ghost stories, the drive in, and real popcorn.
11. Children need discipline from their parents.
12. Children need chores, a job, a way to earn what they want.
13. Children need an education that recognizes mama and daddy as the authority, God as the creator, and the Bible as the roadmap.
14. Children need love.

This is not about some agenda; this is about children.

Get back to basics: faith, family, & good ole-fashioned fun. -Anon

Adult Ed Update!

We have a variety of programs each week to help us grow in knowledge of our Faith and in love of Our Lord.

Wednesday Morning Bible Study

Thanks to Cheryl Shroyer for sending this series of pictures to share with everyone the happenings at our Bible Study. You can see we have people in the “studio” (Adult Ed Room in the rectory) and attending via ZOOM. Teresa, Jan Rose and Odilia are here in Columbus; Char joins from Norwalk, Ohio and Maureen from her home in Nebraska.

In these photos, we are beginning “Psalms - The School of Prayer” from Ascension Press. Not only do we want to get better acquainted with the Psalms, but also we want to better understand how we can deepen our own prayer experience, both in personal prayer and at Holy Mass. Through this series of talks, Jeff Cavins, Sarah Christmyer and Tim Gray are using the Lectio Divina method, to explain and expound on how we will benefit if we but persist in using the process.

Sundays after the 10:00am Mass we are live (no ZOOM) delving into “The Jewish Roots of the Mass & The Eucharist” Come join us for this wonderful program. This series will continue through August 14th. Coffee & snacks are provided to tide you over until your meal.

Monday Evening Bible Study

Beginning on July 11th, the Monday evening group will start “Psalms - The School of Prayer.” By scheduling the programs in this way, we hope to give additional people the opportunity to experience this wonderful program. And for those who want to repeat, it is very easy.

“Thank you” Knights for your generous gift to our Adult Ed Program! We are already planning to purchase additional programs and these will be announced shortly!

St. Anthony Zaccaria

Born: 1502, Cremona, Italy

Died: July 5, 1539

Feast Day: July 5

Founder of the Clerks Regular of St. Paul, commonly known as the Barnabites.

While Anthony was still an infant his father died, leaving the care of the child's education to his mother, who taught him compassion for the poor and suffering by making him her almoner (an official distributor of alms). After completing the studies given in the schools at Cremona he was sent to Padua for his philosophy, and in 1520, when he had finished this course, began the study of medicine in the university at that place. At the age of twenty-two he received his degree of Doctor of Medicine and returned to Cremona to practice his profession. Three years later he began to study theology and received Holy Orders in 1528. He now devoted himself with renewed energy to works of charity and mercy, visiting and consoling the sick in hospitals and poor-prisons.

The ministry of preaching and the administration of the sacraments produced such great fruit that St. Antonio was encouraged to seek a larger field for his labors and to carry out a great project which he had formed for the good of souls. He went to the populous city of Milan, of which he was a burgess (he had the full rights of citizenship), and entered the Confraternity of Eternal Wisdom. Among the members of this religious body he allied himself with two priests, Fathers Ferrari and Morigia, and told them of his idea of founding a congregation of secular clergy.

Northern Italy at this period was in a deplorable condition. Frequent wars had devastated the country. The advent of the Lutheran soldiery and their contempt for everything Catholic had spread the contagion of bad example, while famine and plague followed in the track of the soldiers. These scourges combined to produce a state of misery that appealed most powerfully to

Antonio and his associates. "The Congregation of the Regular Clerks of St. Paul", St. Antonio's work, which began with five members, was canonically sanctioned by Pope Clement VII in 1533. Their rule bound them to "regenerate and revive the love of the Divine worship, and a truly Christian way of life by frequent preaching and the faithful administration of the sacraments."

The first superior of the new congregation was St. Antonio, who soon became known in Milan as an apostle. Besides giving conferences in churches to ecclesiastics and lay people, he went into the streets of the city with crucifix in hand, and produced great fruit in souls by preaching on the Passion and Death of Christ and the need of penance for sin.

In 1536 he resigned the superiorship to Father Morigia and later went to Vicenza at the request of Cardinal Ridolfi. There he succeeded in reforming morals and in bringing two religious communities of women to a stricter observance of their rule. In the latter labor he was greatly aided by a congregation of nuns "The Angelicals of St. Paul", which he had founded in Milan. He introduced, also, the devotion of the "Forty Hours' Prayers", in Vicenza. The last two years of his life were spent in Milan. He sought there a more suitable church for his Congregation and accepted the offer of the Church of St. Barnabas, but died before the affair was arranged. From this Church of St. Barnabas, the Congregation received the name by which its members are commonly known, i.e. Barnabites.

Worn out by his voluntary penances, as well as by his untiring labors of charity, he was attacked by fever during one of his missions. Knowing that this illness was his last, he had himself brought to his native city, Cremona. There, in his mother's house, he received the Last Sacraments and peacefully expired at the early age of thirty-seven. His body was found incorrupt 27 years after his death. He was declared Blessed by Pope Pius IX in 1849. On 15 May, 1897, he was solemnly canonized in St. Peter's, Rome, by Pope Leo XIII.

Did You Ever Wonder?

In the Apostles Creed we pray: "He descended into Hell."

Q. Why would Jesus descend into the place of eternal punishment?

A. He didn't.

According to Fr. John J. Dietzen, "The use of [hell] in our English translation of the Creed is unfortunate... The word is a translation from a Latin (also Greek and Hebrew) word which means the "lower regions" – a generic name for the place where people would go after death, without regard to a condition of reward or punishment." (John J. Dietzen; The New Question Box, p. 483; © 1983)

"SHEOL (ABODE OF THE DEAD), a Hebrew word that occurs more than 60 times in the Old Testament to signify the nether world... In the Bible it designates [where one goes] whether one be just or wicked, rich or poor." (New Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol. 13, p. 170; © 1967)

"Sheol" is the Hebrew word Fr. Dietzen cited. The "lower regions" and the "nether world" are two terms for the same place. The significance of this is that those who died before Jesus died and rose had no access to either Heaven or Hell. At some point between His death and resurrection, Jesus "descended into [Sheol]" allowing those souls to finally enter into their permanent state – either eternal salvation or eternal damnation.

National Eucharistic Revival: Here's what you need to know

By CNA Staff

Washington, D.C. Newsroom, Jun 17, 2022 / 12:42 pm

The National Eucharistic Revival, launching June 19 on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi, has a mission to “renew the Church by enkindling a living relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist,” as stated on the initiative’s website. Sponsored by the U.S. bishops, the revival aims to inspire people to encounter Jesus in the Eucharist. Here is all you need to know about the National Eucharistic Revival:

What is the Eucharistic Revival?

The Eucharistic Revival is a three-year initiative that aims to inspire, educate, and unite. In a world where not many people know Jesus intimately, the revival is meant to show everyone what wonders the True Presence of Jesus can do to heal the soul. Through a carefully planned timeline of events, after three years, the U.S. bishops hope to change the lives of many Catholics and non-Catholics alike.

As the campaign organizers say on the revival’s website, those who have been “healed, converted, formed, and unified” by the Eucharist have a mission to teach others “for the life of the world.” This is what the National Eucharistic Revival envisions for the future of this movement.

Why are the U.S. bishops doing this?

Great question. The current world is hurting and straying far from God. According to Pew Research Center, only 31% of Catholics even believe in the True Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. It is up to that 31% to spread the truth to all. As the revival website says, “We all need healing, yet many of us are separated from the very source of our strength. Jesus Christ invites us to return to the source and summit of our faith — his Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist.”

It is a time to confront the hardships that face people in everyday life. The National Eucharistic Revival is a powerful, uplifting way to rise to this challenge.

What’s planned for the kickoff?

This coming year is the Year of Diocesan Renewal. From now through June of 2023, each diocese will offer events to promote and inspire understanding of the Eucharist. The training of “Eucharistic missionaries” will come through online and in-person resources that teach about Christ and the Real Presence.

Everything will start with widespread Eucharistic Adoration and procession on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi.

What happens next?

Spanning until July 2024 and beyond, the movement will also include a Year of Parish Revival, a National Eucharistic Congress in 2024, and the National Year of Mission. Each year will be dedicated to serving a specific purpose in the National Eucharistic Revival’s mission.

When is the National Eucharistic Congress?

This major national event will be held in Indianapolis, Indiana, from July 17-21, 2024

Over 100,000 Catholics are expected to “worship our Risen Lord in his humble disguise” and allow the Holy Spirit to “enkindle a missionary fire in the heart of our nation,” according to the revival website. This “National Pilgrimage” will have both in-person and remote options, so everyone can take part in this solemn celebration.

How can I get involved?

There are many ways for individuals all over the United States to get involved in the National Eucharistic Revival. Catholics are given the option to become prayer partners, share testimonies, and call on the Holy Spirit to encourage and strengthen this movement. The revival calls upon “laypeople, families, religious orders, and priests to volunteer their time, talents, and prayers in pursuit of the grassroots renewal our world so desperately needs,” its website says.

Available learning resources include Corpus Christi novenas in both English and Spanish, a document prepared by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) about the Eucharist, a question and answer page about the Eucharist, and a free course by Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens of the Archdiocese of Crookston on learning to embrace the gift of the Eucharist. More resources will become available throughout the movement’s timeline.

Where can I go for more information?

The best spot for more information is the National Eucharistic Revival website itself. Not only does it have an abundance of learning resources and prayer assistance, but also a list of answered frequently asked questions. The USCCB website also has a wealth of resources.
